CU Members Mortgage Promotes John Jackson as Executive Sales Consultant

March 1, 2017, Addison, TX – As part of the sales team expansion to better serve credit unions across the country, mortgage services provider CU Members Mortgage promoted long-time staffer John Jackson to Executive Sales Consultant for the southern regional area. Jackson, who has been with CU Members Mortgage since 1998, will work with credit unions, industry leagues and associations, credit union chapters, and trade groups to find mortgage lending solutions to support their needs. This territory includes North Texas, the Texas panhandle, West Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee and Missouri.

Jackson's primary responsibilities include creating a custom mortgage solution for each individual credit union or CUSO. As their liaison, he will guide them through the detailed training program and direct their marketing efforts to maximize effectiveness.

Working for CU Members Mortgage for nearly two decades and with credit unions since 1995, Jackson has held positions as Loan Officer, International Business Development Representative, Sales Manager, and Account Executive. He is a graduate of SW CUNA Management, holds an MBA from LeTourneau University, and earned a BBA from Southern Arkansas University.

“We are proud to promote John Jackson to this position,” said Linda Clampitt, Senior Vice President of CU Members Mortgage. “He has been with us throughout various market changes and knows our business, as well as the credit union marketplace, inside and out. As a result, this promotion is a natural progression for him. We fully expect him to excel and exceed all expectations.”
