CU Members Mortgage Hires Donna Barnhill as New Account Executive in Fulfillment Services/Correspondent Lending

November 27, 2017, Addison, TX – As part of the continued sales team expansion to better serve credit unions nationwide, mortgage services provider CU Members Mortgage has hired seasoned employee Donna Barnhill as an Account Executive for Fulfillment Services/Correspondent Lending department.

Barnhill, who has worked at parent company, Colonial Savings, for 29 years in various roles moved to the Fulfillment Services and Correspondent team. Her previous experience includes Senior Purchasing Auditor, Government Insurer, Escrow Services and she's specifically worked with credit unions troubleshooting through investor guidelines for purchasing loans, lock and pricing, and post-closing follow-up. In this new role, she will support and train credit unions, facilitate and expedite mortgage loans through to closing, and be the main point person for credit unions working with CU Members Mortgage in the Fulfillment Services and Correspondent capacity.

"I've had the opportunity to work with credit unions for many years in my previous position and I'm excited about furthering my involvement to serve them," Barnhill said. "This new position will give me a chance to offer all my back office knowledge working with investors and post closing and guide credit unions through the loan process. It's a great fit!"

“We are pleased to promote Donna to this new position,” said Doug Crimmins, Vice President of Correspondent and Fulfillment Services with CU Members Mortgage. “Her knowledge and experience make her perfect for this position and we look forward to seeing her excel as part of our Fulfillment Services and Correspondent team.”
