J. David Motley elected Vice Chairman of MBA's Residential Board of Governors

November 18, Fort Worth, TX – J. David Motley, president of Fort Worth based Colonial Savings and its mortgage divisions, Colonial National Mortgage and CU Members Mortgage, has been elected Vice Chairman of the national Mortgage Bankers Association Residential Board of Governors. RESBOG is the governing body for MBA's single-family residential members, responsible for establishing legislative and regulatory policies and positions on residential lending issues. Garry Cipponeri, senior vice president of J.P. Morgan Chase, serves as Chairman.

Motley currently sits on MBA's Board of Directors and is an active member of the organization's Council on Residential Mortgage Servicing for the 21st Century.

“David has provided excellent leadership not just in his role as president of CU Members Mortgage, but to the industry at large through the MBA,” said CU Members, a division of Colonial Savings, F.A., Chairman of the Board Jim DuBose. “His appointment as Vice Chair of RESBOG is indicative of his comprehensive knowledge of all aspects of mortgage lending and the professional respect he has earned on a national level. The work he will be doing with RESBOG will have an enormous impact on the future of mortgage lending and servicing in this country.”
